

SAVE Diffusion Represents Telos/Omnia in France

27 January 2003, Cleveland Ohio, USA

Telos Systems and Omnia Audio welcome SAVE Diffusion (www.savediffusion.fr) to their worldwide network of representatives. SAVE Diffusion, whose client list includes important broadcasters such as TDF and Towercast, and major networks such as Europe 1, Europe 2, Fun Radio, NRJ, Radio Scoop, RFM, RTL and RTL2, is one of France's premiere suppliers of broadcast audio products.

"SAVE Diffusion is very proud to be able to represent Omnia and Telos's products in France. For us, these two brands represent very high technology and recognized reliability," says General Manager Paul Guibouret. "French broadcasters place a high value on quality and reliability, and we are sure that our new Telos / Omnia partnership will provide them with just what they are looking for."

"Our French clients can look forward to taking advantage of SAVE's resources and great customer service," says Telos Systems' Managing Director, Denny Sanders. "We are very excited about welcoming them to the Telos / Omnia family."

SAVE Diffusion will showcase Telos and Omnia products at the upcoming Radio Operator's Exhibition to be held in Paris from 2 to 5 February. To contact them, telephone 04 77 79 46 68, or e-mail pguibouret@savediffusion.fr. Telos and Omnia products are used by broadcast professionals in more than 175 nations; for a listing of representatives worldwide, please visit www.telos-systems.com or www.omniaaudio.com.

Telos Systems, headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio with offices in Europe and Canada, is a leading manufacturer of ISDN, coded audio and telephone interface products for talk-shows, teleconferencing, audio production, remote broadcasts, and intercom applications.

Omnia, a Telos company, is world-renowned for its digital audio signal processing expertise. Omnia audio processors for FM, AM, TV, HD Radio & DAB, Internet, and audio production are setting new standards for professional audio quality.
